

Hi Everyone,

Last weekend my family and I went to New York City. This is a selfie my wife took of us in Times Square.

This selfie brought a question to mind for me. Is it time to take a selfie of your personal financial situation? Do you have a good savings program in place? Are you monitoring your debt levels and bringing them down on a monthly basis? Do you contribute to your company's retirement plan, especially if your employer has a matching program? If your answer to any of these questions is no then it's probably time for a financial selfie.

This picture of me and my family makes me smile every time I see it. Hopefully when you do your financial selfie you'll have a similar response.

Till Next Time,
